TERMS OF SALE

All coins and bills guaranteed genuine.

New bidders or customers sending in bids for the first time must positively give first class reference, bank reference preferably, or else send a deposit of at least 25% of the total amount of bids. Otherwise, their bids will not be accepted; application of such deposit will be made upon successful bids; the seller reserves the right to demand payment upon successful bids before delivery in his sole discretion. To those known to me who have established credit, a reference or deposit is not necessary and purchases will be sent out promptly after the sale. In appreciation of this courtesy the purchaser remits promptly.

Collectors who make unlimited bids will get the lots at 5% above the highest actual bid entered.

The terms are prompt cash settlement after sale, and no time given. Collectors who are not certain that they can pay promptly are asked not to bid. The coins in the sale are the property of my clients, and I must make prompt settlement for them.

Remit by money order, draft, check, or in any way most convenient. Stamps accepted for accounts that are below one dollar only.

Coins will be bought below your bids where other offers permit, as this is competitive bidding, executed in good faith.

The usual charge of 5% will be made for executing your bids, and for packing and sending out material. No charge made on anything not actually purchased. Postage and express is paid by the purchaser.

Received bills are not sent out after your remittance as this is unnecessary. Your check, draft or money order itself is a receipt. However, if a 3-cent stamp is enclosed we will send receipt.

Be certain that you bid on the lot you wish to buy. We will correct errors and adjust claims, but you should not expect us to pay for your mistakes. Be careful in making your bids. Be sure that you bid on the lot you wish to buy, and at so much per piece.

Bids must reach me by the morning of the sale. Mail them in time so as to avoid disappointment. At each sale some bids arrive too late to be executed.

All bids are entered as received and lots distributed to the highest bidder without reserve. When two or more bids are the same, and there are no higher bids, the first received gets the lot. When two or more unlimited bids on a certain lot are sent, the first one received gets the lot at a 5% advance over the highest actual bid.

Between the seller and buyer, my position in describing the condition of coins and bills has been neutral. My classifications are generally considered to be conservative, by the collecting public.

It is easy to bid by mail. If you do not know how much to bid on any items, write me giving numbers in catalog and I shall be glad to inform you as to values. It is useless and a waste of time to make low bids that have no chance of success. I sincerely hope that each collector acquires some nice lots from this sale that give him a real thrill and joy of satisfaction.

Please bid by the piece unless stated to bid for the lot. Thus, if there are 12 pieces in a lot and you wish to pay $6 for the lot, then bid 50c. At each sale someone bids by the lot. Don't do this—bid by the piece.

NOTE—A printed list of all the prices realized at this sale will be sent for one dollar, cash with order in advance. Or it will be furnished to bidders at this sale for only 25 cents in coin, if ordered in advance of the sale, and a quarter is enclosed with the bids. It is a great help and a satisfaction to keep posted on values.

END OF SALE

COIN CHATTER

You Need One! The regular price for a printed list of all the prices realized at this sale is one dollar, cash with order in advance. However, if you send in bids for this sale, you have the privilege to order a price list for only 25 cents. This is a special rate for bidders only. To save bookkeeping, please enclose your quarter with your bids. Just place it in a small envelope or wrap in a small piece of paper, and it will not wear through the letter, and will easily reach me. It pays to keep posted on present-day prices; besides, priced catalogues have value.

First Australian Crown. The first crown or dollar to be issued in the Commonwealth of Australia has just made its appearance. The coin, dated 1937, bears the bust of George VI in style similar to the English crown, and is by H. Paget. The reverse, by Kruger Gray, shows the date below a jeweled crown in center, and around COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA ONE CROWN.

The Housing Problem. Much has been said and written about how to keep a coin collection, and on the subject of cleaning coins. There are some different ideas about the matter, but collectors generally agree that tin boxes are better than cigar boxes to hold coins permanently or over long years, and they cost little to make. Also, white paper and white envelopes should be avoided. Tarnish-proof or colored paper and envelopes are better to keep coins in for a long period. Tissue paper is of little use. Clear cellophane envelopes are sometimes used to hold the coin inside the coin envelope, and thus the coin may be handled and looked at without touching the coin itself. Glass topped coin cases and coin cabinets are necessary when much exhibit use is to be made of a collection. It is advisable to never clean a coin, especially a valuable coin, except at the hands of experts, as the subject requires considerable experience because of different problems.

What is a Shin Plaster? A popular name originally applied to the depreciated Continental Currency after the Revolutionary War. It was revived about 1837 to designate the small notes for the fractional part of a dollar issued by private bankers during the financial stress of that period. Finally, the same name was given to the fractional currency from 1862 to 1874 when specie payments were suspended.

Best Sellers at Last Sale. The 1864 copper cent, with "L" on ribbon continues a "best seller" with several $8 bids, and several unlimited bids pushing the price with the 5% advance rule to a new top of $8.40 to the first unlimited bidder, the others going without any. Commemorative gold sells well, with $12.50 to $14 for Lewis-Clark gold dollars, $10 for Grant without star, and $8.50 for 1917 McKinley. Commemorative silver held up well, with $16.50 for Panama-Pacific half-dollar, $24 for Missouri with star, $12.50 for Alabama 2x2, $50 for Grant with star, $12 for Cook, $22 for Cincinnati set. $10 was bid for 1877 nickel 5c and 3c each.

Invest in Coins. Those who had a few thousands of dollars invested in rare coins during these seven years of depression, were glad that they had done so, and found it a help in bringing them through that depression. Money in coins proved much better than money in stocks or bonds or real estate, and owners were at all times able to realize on their investment as needed. Besides the safest security of it all, the collector enjoys looking at his coins and studying them, and also enjoys showing them to his friends. For real safety and pleasure, buy coins, and buy now!

113th Sale in 1938. Our 113th sale is now in preparation for January. Send in your collection or consignment now, or as soon as convenient, and we will do our level best with it. Prices are good in mid-winter, with the collecting season at its height, when cold weather and snow keep the collectors in their dens, at their collections.

We are sure you will be delighted with our descriptions and catalogue work. We give collections a lot of space and time, the benefits of our long experience of thirty years a collector, and the conduct of one hundred twelve sales. You do not need to wait long until a sale is prepared, and settlement after the sale is prompt. If the collection is large or valuable and the owner desires a personal interview we will make the trip to your home for complete arrangements.

A TRIP ABROAD

After a real night's sleep at the new Hotel Westrheim, an invigorating morning walk, the continental breakfast, and a few Norske fence-rail cigars, we travel in "beel" through pretty mountainous scenery to Voss and after an hour there continue to world-famous "Stalheim," a beautifully situated mountain resort, red and white, 1200 feet high, a fairy palace. A two-mile hike down the road to the canyon's creek bed below is good exercise, and the return climb two miles back up is hard work.

From here there are ski parties earlier in the spring. Many visitors from England are seen, and nobility from Germany. The former Kaiser vacationed here at times and liked it. There are pretty falls, woods, parks, glaciers, ice fields, snow and rocks. There are fishing parties with guides. From here we departed one morning by bus to Gudvangen. There we stepped on a fjord boat and made the scenic trip via Sognefjord to Fredheim, near Flam. This is as far as you go, with boats or beels, or with train or bus. But we wish to travel further! And it is too far to walk! Very well, then, Larson will take you. So this little old stooped man Larson calls to his typical little yellow Norwegian horse Spirit. We put our bags on the two-wheeled cart and find just a little space on the seat. Larson drives Spirit from behind, or walks along the side, at times. When the going is too steep, we all walk. After twelve miles of this, along precipitous gorges, and the going becomes steeper, I began to think we would have to carry Spirit and all. If anything goes wrong or there is danger, Buster is there to watch and bark. En route, we stopped at an inn for refreshments. While Spirit munches his hay, Larson takes us on a side hike to a narrow chasm, not over seven feet across the top, with straight side walls a hundred feet deep with a rushing torrent below. We lie down prone as we look over the ledge. Many hours of slow travel bring us 2,800 feet up in the snow at Myrdal.

It is only a mile to Vajahalsen Hotel, another beauty resort, from Myrdal, so we walk over there for our supper. Here is fine scenery, a lake and falls, a deep gorge, and we return walking through a new tunnel under construction, a marvel of engineering, then visit a dairy of twenty cows. At midnight it is still perfect daylight, so I sat down and wrote a letter home, with no artificial light needed. Then we boarded a train arriving in Norway's capital, Oslo, the next morning at seven.
